Frequently Asked Questions

What is an apprenticeship?

An Apprenticeship is a real job where you learn, gain experience and get paid. You are an employee with a contract of employment and holiday leave. By the end of an apprenticeship, you'll have the right skills and knowledge needed for your chosen career.

For more information go to: www.apprenticeships.gov.uk or ask your chosen training provider.

What is a Traineeship?

A traineeship is a skills development programme that includes a work placement. It can last from 6 weeks up to 1 year, though most traineeships last for less than 6 months. Traineeships can get you ready for an apprenticeship or job.

For more information go to: <https://www.gov.uk/find-traineeship> or ask your chosen training provider.

What is a Study Programme?

Study programmes are for 16 to 18 year olds (16-25 if you have a disability) and are designed to meet your individual learning needs providing different elements to make up your individual timetable with your training provider. They are designed to give you the knowledge, skills and behaviours you need to progress onto further learning or employment.

For more information contact your chosen training provider.

Can I go on a programme if I am older and unemployed?

Yes. There are many different programmes you can do and some require particular eligibility. Contact your chosen training provider for more information or your local Job Centre Advisor.

For more information please email sunderlandcpn@gmail.com or contact any of the providers directly.
